

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Carey International, Inc. today accepted the resignation of Devin J. Murphy as President, Chief Executive Officer and member of the Board of Directors. Gary L. Kessler has been promoted effective immediately to President and Chief Operating Officer responsible for managing the company.

“Devin very capably served Carey for over ten years and helped position the company for the next period of growth. We thank him for his leadership contributions and wish him well in his future endeavors,” said Robert J. Tarr, Chairman of the Board.

“We also congratulate Gary on his promotion to President and COO. We have strong confidence in Gary and his ability to lead this organization through the next exciting phase of development,” commented Mr. Tarr in announcing the appointment. “Mr. Kessler has helped to develop the company and create a firm foundation on which Carey can continue to grow. Gary has driven innovation and excellence in overseeing Carey’s industry leading Meetings and Events division and has directed the development of the most advanced reservations center in the world for chauffeured services. Under Gary’s hands-on proactive management, Carey has maintained impeccable reliability in specialized road show services which continue to be embraced strongly by the financial and investment community. His contributions are continuing today with the recent reengineering of Carey’s customer care and private aviation desks. It is with great pleasure and confidence that I announce his promotion.”

Mr. Kessler, who joined Carey in January 1999, was most recently Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. He previously served the company as Executive Vice President, Operations and General Counsel. Mr. Kessler holds an MBA from the Fuqua School of Business at Duke University and a JD from the University of Virginia School of Law. Mr. Kessler was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and a Magna Cum Laude graduate of Hampden-Sydney College.

About Carey International

Established in 1921, Carey International is the world’s largest chauffeured vehicle service company. The company provides chauffeured sedan, limousine, van and mini-bus service through a worldwide network of owned and operated companies, licensees and affiliate services in 547 cities in 59 countries. The Carey International website address is www.Carey.com.

Contact

Bruce Mainzer – Senior Vice President - Marketing
(847) 376-6111